The questions in this section are designed to assure the judge that you understand aspects of the sentencing process.

Answer question 13 only if you are pleading guilty pursuant to an 11(c)(1)(C) agreement. Otherwise, move on to question 14:

13. Do you understand that the judge may accept or reject your plea agreement? If the judge rejects your plea agreement, you may withdraw your guilty plea. If the judge accepts your plea agreement, the judge must follow its terms. That is, the judge must impose any specific sentence or apply the sentencing range, specific Sentencing Guidelines provisions, policy statements, or sentencing factors agreed upon by you and the government in the plea agreement. Your sentence will follow the terms of the agreement, which may be the same, greater or lesser than the sentence you would have received had you pleaded not guilty and had been convicted by a jury.

Yes N/A No

If you answered question 13, skip question 14 and proceed to question 15.

14. Do you realize that:

a) if you plead GUILTY, the judge may impose the same punishment as if you had pleaded NOT GUILTY and had been convicted by a jury?

Yes X No

b) the sentence you will receive is solely a matter for the judge to decide?

Yes X No

c) there is no guarantee your sentence will be within any particular sentencing guideline range?

Yes X No

I	0	20yr	0	1,000,000	3		$100

16. Do you understand that probation is generally not available if there is a mandatory minimum penalty?

Yes X No

17. Will you be forfeiting any property to the United States as a result of your guilty plea?

Yes No X

18. Do you realize that, if you plead GUILTY, the judge may require you to make restitution to any victim of the offense?

Yes X No

19. Do you understand that, if you are convicted of any offense consisting of possession or distribution of controlled substances, you may be ineligible for any and all federal benefits?

Yes X No

20. Do you realize that the judge must require you to pay on each count to which you are convicted a special assessment as follows: each felony count $100; each misdemeanor count $5 to $25?

Yes ☒ No ☐

21. If you are on probation, parole or supervised release from any court, do you know that by pleading GUILTY here your probation, parole or supervised release may be revoked and you may be required to serve time in that case in addition to any sentence imposed upon you in this case?

Yes ☒ No ☐

22. The presentence report is instrumental in determining appropriate sentencing decisions, risk classification in the Bureau of Prisons, and identifying strategies that will provide you with the greatest opportunity for success. Full participation in the presentence process, including an interview, is your opportunity to provide a detailed account of your background and any other factors that could have an impact on your success. The U.S. Probation Office believes your failure to fully cooperate may limit sentencing options, programming availability, and other aspects of supervision. Have you discussed this with your attorney?

Yes ☒ No ☐

D. ADVISORY SENTENCING GUIDELINES

You will be sentenced by the judge after consideration of the advisory federal sentencing guidelines and other important pertinent factors. It is important that you understand certain consequences of these guidelines.

Yes ☒ No ☐

25. Do you understand that there are numerous factors that may increase your sentence under the advisory sentencing guidelines?

Yes ☒ No ☐

26. Do you understand that the judge is required to take into account all conduct, circumstances, and injuries associated with your criminal conduct, whether or not this conduct is charged by the government in the crime to which you are pleading guilty? Thus, under the advisory sentencing guidelines, the judge will consider all relevant conduct at the time of sentencing, even if you are pleading guilty to less than all counts in the indictment.

Yes ☒ No ☐

27. Do you understand that parole has been abolished in the federal system? Thus, if you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, you will serve that term, less no more than 54 days per year you earn for good conduct. There is no good conduct time awarded on sentences of less than one year and one day.

Yes ☒ No ☐

28. Do you understand that, if you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, the judge will typically impose a period of supervised release to follow your release from imprisonment?

Yes ☒ No ☐

29. Do you understand that during any period of supervised release your activities will be limited by conditions set by the judge and that violation of any of those conditions may result in the judge's revoking the term of supervised release, requiring you to serve in prison all or part of the term of supervised release without credit for time previously served on postrelease supervision, and imposing another term of supervised release?

Yes ☒ No ☐

30. Do you understand that even though you may have signed a cooperation plea agreement, the government has the authority to decide whether to file a motion requesting the judge grant you leniency as a result of cooperation? In most cases, a judge cannot make the government file such a motion and absent such a motion the judge cannot impose a sentence less than the mandatory minimum penalty prescribed by law; and even if such a motion is filed, the judge may not grant such a motion or grant you the leniency that you had hoped for.

Yes ☒ No ☐

33. Has anyone made any promise that causes you to plead GUILTY, aside from the promises, made in your plea agreement?

Yes ☐ No ☒

34. Has any officer, attorney or agent of any branch of the government (federal, state or local) promised, suggested or predicted that you will receive a lighter sentence, or probation, or any other form of leniency if you plead GUILTY?

Yes ☐ No ☒

35. Has the judge suggested what your actual sentence will be?
